

I have a very serious concern that when media ownership is controlled by a few powerful conglomerates that they also control all the information that is broadcast -- limiting or denying the public the possibilities of differing viewpoints. It will also limit local programs and viewpoints. I am opposed to any further consolidation of media ownership.